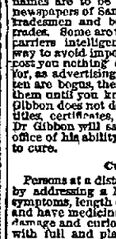
MEDICAL.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET, COR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where all his patients and those requiring his services may find him at all hours.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from unskilful treatment by the mineral system. Such pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life, in this hapless situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured first and cured before it is too late Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or an exposure. This is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, and who skilfully conceal their ignorance in a few days, impressing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. failing countenance, dark circles around the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the joints, weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted sight, cowardice, evil forebodings, fickleness in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, frightful dreams, nervous fears, hurried breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and agreeable mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr. G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that we have ever failed of a complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make a charge.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with impudence unparalleled, are infesting the highways. Some of the self-styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are mere boys and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients' letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr GIBBON stating case, symptoms and full history of disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co, a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union All communications strictly confidential.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco, Postoffice Box 1 957.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondency will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN jy6d4p

Church Riot.

PANAMA July 18.—Advices from Salvador state a serious riot took place at San Miguel—a town of 40 000 inhabitants in the southern part of the republic A great deal of discontent has been excited against the government by its refusal to allow the recall of the bishop of Salvador written by a letter hostile to the laws to be read in the churches Also there had been considerable hostile feeling among the lower classes owing to the regulations requiring dealers to use a new coinage Public affairs were in this state a priest named Chilacoyo preached a violent sermon against the constituted authorities on the 20th ult. In the evening a mob arose attacked the Cabildo and liberated some 200 persons then proceeded to the Cuartel and stormed the barracks killed Gen. Ingalaza and Castro, cut the former to pieces and dragged the pieces of each other split the skull of Castro and threw him over a wall where he was finished off by his mother and died in three days. Certain citizens were nearly all assassinated Many prominent citizens killed. After this the mob set fire to 16 houses with kerosine Before the town was entirely destroyed it fortunately happened H B M ship La Ione was at La Union and the lahed her marines and allowed the garrison to embark with some troops from Amapala in readiness to march to the relief of San Miguel and put down the mob Cuerte Velasco at last accounts was arrested with others that had participated in the outbreak and a good many inferior rioters had been shot by order of President Gonzales who had arrived with troops and the houses destroyed and looted The damage is estimated at $1 000 000 Still more serious failures are looked for in consequence The country has been declared in a state of siege and the president is taking measures to restore order and bring the perpetrators of this disgraceful outbreak to punishment The Diario oficial paper of the State and all public print is bound in black disgust and indignation prevails with the instigators of this savage and sanguinary affair The episcopal vicar for the edict published in the Cathedral of San Salvador multiply 1 ft to succeed to have the said Velacio removed but the Government series paid no attention to the petition Velacio was continually exciting hatred between the Jesuits and all the others of the result has just been described One curious and incredible discovery was made after the affair was over and that was that on the persons of some of the dead rebels were found passports which read when translated Peter goes to the heaven the gates of heaven who has God for religion. The Red Cloud Investigation.

WASHINGTON July 17.—The commissioners of Indian affairs say inquiry into the Red Cloud agency affairs is in the hands of competent gentlemen with instructions to take the freest range and find whatever wrongs exist The story that the steal Keating Indians have been frequently reported to him without receiving attention he pronounces absolutely false. Charges similar to these now made quite as serious and rather more bitter were made against this agency eight years ago when the secretary of the interior at once required an investigation through a commission of which Bishop Hare was made chairman It would be more true to say that such commission would desire to cover any fraud That full and unanimous report to the commission not only completely exonerates agent Saville from wrong but declares that the charges against the agent were made on the testimony of agents which were gleaned at the agencies during their absence and which they had no opportunity to account for were when brought to their notice satisfactorily explained The practices which were irregular were shown to have been unavoidable in the peculiar circumstances in which these agents were placed and transactions which at first sight seemed suspicious to the casual and inexperienced mind had been imputed shown to have been characterized by entire good faith to have been carried on in broad daylight and where not justifiable to have been not wrong doing but matters of practice which officers were peculiarly the incumbent can learn only from experience The commission endorse the replies of agents in the material points and give as results of their prolonged investigation nearly all touched on in Mr Walker's report and the result also of their intercourse with agents and their personal observations of men and things at the agencies the entire relief of agents Saville and Howard from the suspicions cast upon their characters and their administration and the earnest conviction that these gentlemen have performed their duties during a time of great trial and in the midst of great embarrassments with energy honesty and entire fidelity to the interests of the government and the Indians and they also endorse the confidence and commendation of this department On this report by persons whose judgment and findings he had a right to deem competent and every way reliable, the commissioner of Indian affairs the Paxton contract for beef at the Red Cloud agency which the commissioner is charged to have fraudulently let to Gray and is still burning The statements made by him in strict conformity with law as the records abundantly show on the advice and recommendation of the board of Indian commissioners after careful inquiry by that board into the facts and necessities of the case so far as the undefinite charges of fraud or connivance with wrong doing in any way on his part Commissioner Smith makes a most positive and comprehensive denial and says he defies the most searching and the severest scrutiny of his official acts by fair minded men respecting the charge against Secretary Delano of complicity with fraudulent Red Cloud agency The commissioner says that in the interest of public fairness he feels it his duty to state that he has no knowledge of any such complicity on the part of that officer and knows of nothing tending to show it On the contrary so far as he knows the action of the secretary in all matters pertaining to Red Cloud agency during the past year has been only the ordinary official routine of action of the department upon matters submitted to it by the commissioner and never by any proving suggestions of the commissioner and never in any way dictating or even making a suggestion as to purchases or contracts or pecuniary transactions of any sort.

Prof. Marsh Pronounces Commissioner Smith's Explanation a Trick.

NEW HAVEN July 18.—Prof Marsh pronounces the attempt I explanation published yesterday by Commissioner Smith in regard to the affairs at Red Cloud agency a contemptible trick of the grossest character The official report cited by the commissioner is the only one of a large number on file in the interior department that was favorable and it is now known that even the commissioners who made it owing mainly to the short time they were at the agency were mistaken on several points and some of the gentlemen have since made affidavits that the price was not the fair price and some of the testimony on which were based the most damaging attacks upon the Indian administration was the testimony of a well known disorder and thief The facts cited by the commissioner of agents which were gleaned at the agencies during their absence and which they had no opportunity to account for were when brought to their notice satisfactorily explained The practices which were irregular were shown to have been unavoidable in the peculiar circumstances in which these agents were placed and transactions which at first sight seemed suspicious to the casual and inexperienced mind had been imputed shown to have been characterized by entire good faith to have been carried on in broad daylight and where not justifiable to have been not wrong doing but matters of practice which officers were peculiarly the incumbent can learn only from experience The commission endorse the replies of agents in the material points and give as results of their prolonged investigation nearly all touched on in Mr Walker's report and the result also of their intercourse with agents and their personal observations of men and things at the agencies the entire relief of agents Saville and Howard from the suspicions cast upon their characters and their administration and the earnest conviction that these gentlemen have performed their duties during a time of great trial and in the midst of great embarrassments with energy honesty and entire fidelity to the interests of the government and the Indians and they also endorse the confidence and commendation of this department On this report by persons whose judgment and findings he had a right to deem competent and every way reliable, the commissioner of Indian affairs the Paxton contract for beef at the Red Cloud agency which the commissioner is charged to have fraudulently let to Gray and is still burning The statements made by him in strict conformity with law as the records abundantly show on the advice and recommendation of the board of Indian commissioners after careful inquiry by that board into the facts and necessities of the case so far as the undefinite charges of fraud or connivance with wrong doing in any way on his part Commissioner Smith makes a most positive and comprehensive denial and says he defies the most searching and the severest scrutiny of his official acts by fair minded men respecting the charge against Secretary Delano of complicity with fraudulent Red Cloud agency The commissioner says that in the interest of public fairness he feels it his duty to state that he has no knowledge of any such complicity on the part of that officer and knows of nothing tending to show it On the contrary so far as he knows the action of the secretary in all matters pertaining to Red Cloud agency during the past year has been only the ordinary official routine of action of the department upon matters submitted to it by the commissioner and never by any proving suggestions of the commissioner and never in any way dictating or even making a suggestion as to purchases or contracts or pecuniary transactions of any sort.

Amasa Lyman, originally one of the twelve apostles, but now apostate and leader of a new branch of spiritualists and renegade Mormons in Salt Lake City is here in Beaver, aiding the prosecuting attorneys to expose those guilty of aiding in the slaughter at Mountain Meadow His appearance here has created no little excitement in this community What the result of his visit will be is altogether conjecture but it is believed generally he will unearth many facts that have long been dormant that many of those who acted under mistaken ideas of duty at the time of the tragedy, and aided in carrying out the orders of those in authority will now, under the advice of Lyman, make full confession of what they know of the affair, laying the responsibility where it belongs. Bill Hickman, of murderous notoriety is here also giving aid to the prosecution and comfort to wavering witnesses Col Wm H Dame is now confined at Fort Cameron He is in fine health and very much pleased at the near approach of the trial, and is apparently certain of acquittal John D Lee is in fair health His wives and children are here giving all the aid they can to counsel to prepare for trial but aside from his family Lee has no aid comfort or support from any of the Latter Day Saints in Utah It seems that he is deserted by all but his family and his attorney

HOW GRANNY ROBERTS TOOK HER COFFEE

She was very particular about it that was sure She gently tried her calls on my grandmother which that lady was away from home Not that she would have failed her peculiar and cherished entertainment had my generous and kindly grandmother been at home But she double s felt more at liberty when the girls were the only dispensers of hospitality

Now honey she would say when she had laid her green sun bonnet on the floor beside her chair and filled her corn cob pipe from my father's tobacco box lighting it by means of a coal she held in her horny and callous fingers Now honey can you give me a cup of your mother's good strong yallar coffee? I ain't had none like that since I was hear last Your mother allus has such nice yallar coffee

This of course meant a mud on the thick cream set for melain butter Granny Roberts scorned anything thinner than the creme de la creme

My mother besides being generous and hospitable by nature, was also young and inexperienced Consequently she suffered a good deal at the hands of this old negro and frequent visitor Her older and more worldly wise sister and the very touchy black cook were not thus imposed upon Granny Roberts sensed this attitude of mind towards herself on the part of these two members of the family and she took good care not to provoke hostilities by any act of her own But my mother, sensitive and fine fibred, could not bring herself to snub this old woman whose feelings she ignorantly imagined to be consulted in her own cunning old granny! She imposed on this high minded young soul as systematically as any professional humbug the world has ever known

She never came at meal time The most ample of coffee urns would not have stood the demands of Granny's capacious appetite She usually came in the middle of the afternoon, when the kitchen fire was out, save the few embers in the middle of the huge fire place covered up in order to keep fire till time for supper So my mother would kindle a fire—as much a martyr to blazing logs as any one who suffered at Smithfield (imagine this is not a sultry June afternoon) and grinding a large mill full of coffee, would proceed to make an amount of liquid sufficient for a large family

Now honey granny would say following her young hostess to the kitchen, make it good and strong You know I'm kind o' ailin I'm troubly like, an I've got a ration in my head and a sight o' misery in my side, and I know a cup of o' your mother's good strong yallar coffee would kind o' set me up I only want a cup child Never take more'n a cup That's my rule

This single cup was filled and prepared according to minute instructions from granny When more than half drained she would pause, cup, saying

Too sweet honey, lots too sweet Jest fill it up, won't ye?

This time perhaps two thirds was allowed, and the cup passed with the request for a little more cream Replenished in this direction it seemed to be entirely satisfactory except the last tablespoonful Jest a leetle mite o' sugar, honey You put in most too much cream that time

Sugared, it seemed the nectar of the gods for a little while and my mother would take up her darning in the vain hope that granny was at last satisfied. Not by any means

Now, honey this is a heap too cold I wish you'd just fill it up with hot coffee" And so proceeded the futile attempt to satisfy the critical taste of this old woman until the last drop of the strong brown liquid was exhausted and then Granny Roberts praised her cup of coffee highly This cup of coffee required a part of thick cream and caused a perceptible lowering of the ample sugar bowl but it was only one cup

I never drink but one cup honey but I like that good and strong and yallar —From the Christian Union

AN UNREDEEMED PLEDGE TO THE REVOLUTIONARY ARMY

In a recent letter to Mayor Cobb of Boston the Hon George Bancroft says the Centennial celebration at Bunker Hill and the affectionate farewell to the military guests from Virginia bring to mind the years when during the severe trials of Massachusetts that ancient commonwealth always and ever at the right moment, gave to her sister colony her heartiest and most needed support and when the two were bound together by the undying pledge that their springs should be "the love of freedom and of man" This memory of this reverence of the old and intimate union between the States he thinks should be perpetuated by an enduring monument The counterpart of the battle of Bunker Hill he says is found at Yorktown Va where the triumph of peace was happily perfected by "the giving up the sword of the British commander and the surrender of his army to the great Virginian, the great American, the best representative of his country, and century" Washington

On the 29th of October, 1781 Congress pledged to the victorious army, to France, to America to the world that the nation should build at Yorktown a monument of marble, with emblems of our great alliance to keep fresh in memory the all decisive successes which had been achieved Let the occasion of your Centennial be taken to redeem that pledge by which you and all of us, every village and every city, and every State are engaged Bunker Hill is now within the precincts of Boston Now the Union would respond to your city government if it would request Congress to redeem the public faith by fulfilling the promise of our fathers" A shadow will be thrown over the coming centennial at Yorktown if when we meet on that spot their word shall not yet have been honored

Mayor Cobb transmitted this letter to the Boston City Council commending the subject to their consideration and saying

I cannot but think that in the nationalism that is attending this Centennial period the people of this country will expect Congress to redeem the pledge solemnly given in 1781. And it would seem to be fitting that Boston as having within its limits the monument commemorating the first pitched battle of the revolution at Bunker Hill should be foremost and earnest in its endeavors to secure the erection of a like memorial of the last and crowning battle at Yorktown Va The most obvious method would appear to be a petition to congress with the expectation that other cities and the whole country will coöperate with us in such an effort to secure an object so appropriate and desirable Some action on our part in this direction, whether in the manner proposed or any other I should regard as a natural sequel to our recent celebration in which we had the happiness of uniting fraternally with our fellow citizens from all sections of the country in commemorating the illustrious deeds of our fathers and their a hundred years ago

The city council has taken the first step by appointing a joint special committee consisting of Messrs Kimball Peabody and Felt to act upon the correspondence

The Olympia Farmer says There are but a few old snags in the way to prevent a steamboat from navigating the Puyallup river for at least ten miles and if some one having a small capital and a great deal of energy would only give this a trial, we are of the opinion that it would pay, if not in passengers it would in freight, especially during the fall and winter months"

The Boise Statesman of July 13th says Mr S S Gray has advertised his notice of application for a ferry on Snake river which crosses the river at Whitley s Bottom, eight miles below the mouth of Boise river The object is to open a better route to and from Oregon for the Boise travel Persons coming from or going to the Wilson creek country, or Burnt river in Oregon will benefit by this ferry

The Seattle Dispatch of the 14th says The woods are on fire at Eleven Mile creek on the road between Seattle and Snohomish, and Mr J W Denny's house is burned The fire has not extended into any very heavy timber land yet but is likely to soap through a portion of that large body of good timber, unless a rainfall prevents it, belonging to the Port Gamble Mill Co, in townships 32 and 33 N R 4 and 5 E

The total population of Thurston county, W T is reported at 3 358 of which 1 329 are white males, 939 white females, 63 colored males and 37 colored females The nationalities are thus classified native 2 030, foreign born 308 There are 695 male citizens, 616 of whom are under 60 years of age, and 287 are householders There were 814 out of the whole number who were born in the Territory The census of 1873 showed a total population of 2 275 in the county, showing an increase of only 83 in the two years past

THE WALLAMET CARRYING TRADE

Another step toward the complete utilization of the Wallamet river for the carrying trade of the valley has been taken The steamer Champion, which has just been built by the W R T Co is of so light draught as to be able to reach Albany at any time in the year and most of the time the towns beyond, with large cargoes of freight Several other boats of similar class are in course of construction by various parties and companies From this time forth the farmers will have the benefit of the cheap rates offered by river transportation, without waiting till the winter season Hitherto they have been compelled either to pay the high rates of railway transportation, or store their wheat and be without the use of the money it would bring till winter This was a double loss a loss of the use of the money for the wheat and a loss of the expense of storing Henceforth the grain can be forwarded to market as soon as it is harvested, and that too by the cheapest means of carrying it.

It is comparatively a late thing that attention has been drawn to the necessity and feasibility of improving the Wallamet river The appropriations for that purpose thus far have been small, but with these small appropriations enough has been accomplished to be of considerable benefit and to demonstrate the practicability of making the stream navigable for light draught boats up to the very head of the valley; and no doubt in a very few years, with the improvement of the stream and the use of such boats as the Champion, the farmers of this entire section of the State will have the benefit of water transportation every day in the year

The importance of this fact to the producing industries of the Wallamet valley, is greater than any person will at first suppose The actual saving in money to the farmers of the country, by the action of the enterprising gentlemen who constructed the locks at the falls, has already been not thousands, but hundreds of thousands of dollars It has saved to the people whatever difference has been made on freights and fares both on the river and by rail, for it was that alone which caused the reduction by land as well as by water Competition was the one thing needed to bring rates down, and the construction of the locks secured that, and made it impossible for any monopoly to be maintained

A LIGHT VOTE MAY BE EXPECTED

Those who speculate upon the probable result of the congressional election this fall will miss their mark pretty widely if they count on a full vote It is certain the vote will be very small, and unless some event should occur to awaken interest in the contest, it need surprise no one if the count should show not more than fifty or sixty per cent of the vote to have been cast Various causes will combine to bring about this result In the first place, so far as any human foresight can tell, it will make little or no difference to the material prosperity of the State what party succeeds in the election, for no man who can be sent will be able to do much for the State The House of Representatives, to which we are to elect a member, is already Democratic by a majority so great that the addition of one more to that party's numbers, or to the number of its opponents, will signify nothing Then it has become a settled fact that, under any party, the thing which Oregon most needs, assistance in the building of a railway to give us Eastern connections, cannot be obtained, so the hope of securing a congressman who can serve us in that direction, will inspire no particular activity in the election The mere matter of party success will be scarcely a factor in the contest, for there is scarcely enough party spirit in the community to keep the party organizations on their feet, let alone to sustain an enthusiastic campaign And to all of these facts must be added that the Conventions and the greater part of the campaign, will come at a time when the farmers are busy with their harvest and with ploughing and seeding for the next year It is safe to predict, therefore, that the speakers of this campaign will meet thin audiences, and that the vote at the election will be correspondingly light

THE MEDICINE NEEDED

The St Paul Pioneer Press says, "Nothing would do the Republican party so much good as a sound thrashing" Had this heroic treatment been adopted about two years ago the chances of the party in the next Presidential election would be greatly improved It may be some other remedy besides "a sound thrashing" will prove efficient, but we confess it looks a good deal as if that were the only balm in Gilead for there appears no other way to get rid of the cunning, unscrupulous and selfish political manipulators who have sunk the party to its present position, and until that is done it is idle to expect the people to repose in the party the confidence of former times Those who think the masses of the people will trust in the sincerity of the professions of the party conventions on the subject of retrenchment, reform and honest administration, while the same gang that inaugurated the abuses, extravagances and corruptions are still kept in position and power, are not in a condition to be reasoned with The condition precedent to any rehabilitation of the party is the scourging of the corruptionists out of the places they have disgraced, and the replacing of them with men whose personal character will be a guaranty to the public for their faithfulness

THE RING LEAGUE IN CALIFORNIA

Senator Sargent, of California, is stumping the State against Gen Bidwell, the Independent candidate for governor We say against Gen Bidwell, for it is well understood there that the contest is between Bidwell and Irwin the Democratic candidate and Sargent is begging Independents to vote for the Republican candidate who has not the ghost of a chance, and urging Democrats and Republicans to stick close to their party It is the same sort of an alliance between ring Republicans and Democrats against the Independents which was made in this State last year It is the natural outgrowth of that community of feeling which two rival bands of plunderers have when the community is aroused and the sheriff's posse is in pursuit So the play goes on The ring managers, under the names of Democrat and Republican, without a single iota of difference in their avowed principles contend with each other, like a pack of hungry jackals for the spoils of official position but when the people arise to hurl them all from power, they forthwith enter into a firm league for mutual aid and assistance

ENCOURAGING RESULTS

The following comparative exhibit shows freights on wheat and corn from Chicago to Buffalo, by lake and the average on the same cereals from Buffalo to New York by canal for the month of June in the seasons named

	—LAKE—		—CANAL—
	Wheat Cents	Corn Cents	Wheat Cents	Corn Cents
1866	15 6	14 6	16 6	13 4
186	1 5	12	13 2	11 2
186	9 3	8 4	13 5	11 2
186	6 6	6 0	13 7	11 7
18 0	6 2	5 6	10 9	9 6
18 1	5 7	5 3	10 8	9 1
18 2	8 3	7 8	11 1	11 0
187	6 5	5 8	10 6	9 6
1874	4 2	3 9	11 3	10 3
1875	3 0	2 0	6 9	6 3

From this it will be seen that the average charge this year is far below that of any other year given, and less than half that of two years ago Add to this the fact that last year there was an additional charge for elevation, which is now borne by the vessels, and it will be seen that the farmers of the west are reaping great advantages over former years in the matter of cheap transportation In Oregon rates are scarcely half what they were three years ago Such are the results of the charge that has been made all along the line by the people against the monopolies and such facts give abundant encouragement to keep up the charge Never let the battle cease so long as there is any just cause for continuing it—any ground to be taken or held

In his recent speech at Oakland California Senator Sargent made a series of statements concerning General Bidwell which were proved the next day to be unqualifiedly false and slanderous and attempted a defense of Boss Shepherd and the Washington ring Sargent was one of the four senators who had the hardihood to vote for the confirmation of Shepherd when Grant nominated him for one of the district commissioners It is fitting that such men should stand up for each other

The Salem Record has been sold to the proprietors of the Statesman The Record was a good paper, but Salem is too limited a field for two daily papers, and it will doubtless be found to the advantage of all parties that one is out of the way The Independent cause loses one advocate in the transaction

Senator Morton's paper the Indiana Journal, still insists that Grant is a candidate for re election and that his third term letter was a "politician's bid for the renomination

NOTHING MEAN ABOUT HIM—Aboard of one of the sleeping cars which arrived in Detroit the other morning was an Iowa man, whose big boots had been blacked with the rest while he slept When he came to put them on he asked what the charge was, and the porter replied that he could give what he saw fit. The traveler pulled out a nickel, smiled patronizingly, and handed it out with the remark "There —you may keep the whole of it When I'm around home I like to know where my money goes to, but when I travel I pay my way and want things pleasant"—Detroit Free Press

A DIMINUTIVE VESSEL—A Boston gentleman is the happy possessor of a miniature steam yacht 17 feet long and 42-inch beam. Her hull weighs but 100 pounds She is propelled by a steam boiler weighing only 48 pounds The cylinder is 14 inches and the stroke 28 inches The propeller is four bladed and is placed under the boat two feet from the stern One gallon of water fills the boiler and as it condenses it is only necessary to supply the waste The boat draws 24 inches of water which carries her propeller clear She cost about $500 and is rated at half horse power Her owner recently made a voyage with her from Boston to Portland

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 19, 1875.

CITY.

CASE OF A MADMAN.—A gentleman who came down from the Dalles last Saturday, relates the following particulars of the case of a madman who it seems was a passenger on the boat. Several days ago a man, whose name we have not been able to learn, was adjudged insane by the proper authorities of Umatilla county, and an order issued for his commitment to the asylum. In custody of the sheriff of that county, and accompanied by a physician, the insane man was brought down to the Dalles. The two reached the town on Friday evening, and putting up at the Umatilla House, passed the night there. It was observed, and generally remarked, among those at the hotel, that the sheriff allowed his prisoner a little too much freedom, considering the fact that he was insane and quite violent when about the hotel when and where he desired. The watch was kept over his person, however, the lunatic did not offer to harm anything or anybody, and no particular attention was paid to him. Early Saturday morning the sheriff, physician and the insane person came on board the boat, bound for Portland. Soon as the boat was fairly under way, the sheriff again permitted his prisoner to walk about unrestrained, taking no further notice of him. When the boat was about six miles below the Dalles, which is known as Crate's Point, the insane man, while unnoticed, walked into the cabin of the steamer. In the most deliberate manner possible he picked up the valise of the sheriff, which was lying in the cabin, and walking to the guards pitched it into the river. Returning to the cabin he picked up the valise belonged to the physician, and also threw that overboard. He then cast his hat into the river, and drawing off his coat threw it in the same manner. All this was done very methodically, and required such a presence of mind that no one could interfere to prevent the strange proceedings. After throwing his coat into the river the mad man began to clamber over the cabin railing, and with the intention of plunging into the water. Before he could carry into execution his insane and suicidal object, one of the passengers sprang forward and caught hold of him. Others came to the rescue and the mad man was forcibly drawn into the cabin and there secured. But the roughest part of the affair was on the sheriff and disciple of Esculapius in the loss of their respective valises. The sheriff's valise contained a pair of handcuffs, a few articles of clothing and last, but by no means least, the insane man's commitment papers made out and duly certified to by the county judge of Umatilla. The doctor's valise contained clothing, papers and instruments which were highly valued. Both valises, on striking the water, sunk from sight, and were, as a matter of course, irrecoverably lost. When the sheriff and physician were first acquainted with their loss, they felt like the lunatic in a few choice profane adjectives, but restrained themselves, as they had no one else to blame for it but themselves. Hatless and baggageless, the lunatic was brought down to the city and committed to the asylum. Next time that sheriff brings down a crazy person he will doubtless profit by his late experience, and not permit him or her, as the case may be, to wander about at will.

ODD FELLOWS' ANNIVERSARY.—The fine hall in this city belonging to the order of Good Templars was thrown open to the public on Saturday evening, the occasion being a joint celebration of the anniversaries of Multnomah and Nonpareil lodges. The attendance was not too large for the sitting accommodations, as the members were able to provide. The veterans in the order were in attendance, and a pleasant reunion was enjoyed. Messrs. Lockwood and Raymond, the C. T.'s of the lodges presided over the meeting. Mr. Jas. A. Smith told the story of Multnomah lodge. It was an interesting and exciting narrative, and it was felicitously spoken. The members of the lodge will appreciate it for its historical value; it was a revelation to some of them, as it must be to the general public, to learn that during its existence this one lodge has administered a lifeblighting pledge of abstinence to two thousand persons. Mr. E. W. Ryan had a chequered history to relate for Nonpareil lodge, but the task was faithfully performed and the one of the sisterhood of Nonpareil but fell to the lot of another lodge as they heard of the changes and vicissitudes through which their charter had been preserved to them. Mr. M. C. George, worthy chief of Western Star lodge, gave a temperance address, which was calculated to make Good Templarism inside as well as outside the lodge room. It contained much glorious counsel to the fraternity of the order, and a striking contrast for all to ponder on between Portland in Oregon, with its record of intemperance and crime, and Vineland, in New Jersey, where with an almost equal population, there was a solitary policeman and an empty jail-last year. Between the speeches, songs were sung, and after the exercises refreshments were served.

FLOOD AND WATER SPOUT.—A correspondent writing from Butter creek, under date of July 12th, says: "At about 4 P. M. on Sunday July 11th, a terrible water-spout occurred on the Hinton fork of Willow creek, flooding and devastating nine ranches. Hinton fork is the eastern branch of Willow creek, and is a narrow but very fertile valley, emptying into the main creek at the town of Heppner. The spout occurred on the high hills between Hinton creek and Butter creek, the water flowing off in four directions, but probably three-fourths of it went down two canons, meeting at the house of John Hinton. The men here on it swept everything before it. Fences, crops, stacks, outhouses and tools were carried off in one mass of ruin. All the fences were destroyed, and there is probably as many as 25 acres of good grain left standing in the valley below the point mentioned. The house of Mr. Brainard was struck by the full force of the flood, a hay stack hurled against it, and the inmates had but barely escaped from the building when it was broken to pieces and washed away. Nothing was saved from the house at the time, the flood coming so suddenly and swiftly that everything had to be abandoned, but since the water has subsided various articles of value have been recovered from among the debris. Several other houses were flooded but not otherwise injured. No lives were lost nor was there any stock killed so far as known. The amount of damage below Heppner I have not ascertained, but as the valley widens out from this point it is presumed that it is not great. R.

ARRIVING.—The following persons from Portland were at the Seaside House, managed by Chas. Dexter, Clatsop, during the week ending July 13th: S. G. Reed and wife, Mrs. J. Winch, A. N. Reed and wife, Miss Fannie Reed, M. J. Cunningham, Chas. Hodge, James Hodge, Arthur Wilson, C. A. Johnson, Mrs. C. Bacon, Miss Hattie Mast, Chas. Bacon, G. R. Weidler, B. G. and Miss May Whittehouse, C. P. Upsher, Miss F. Sherlock, Sol Hirsch and wife, three children and nurse, Mrs. Colson and two children, Thos. J. Holmes, Jacob Miller, John Holton, Frank T. Dodge, John Green, Mrs. Wygant and family, Mrs. T. A. Green, Fred Currier and wife, Isaac Kaufman. Lists of Portlanders at the different resorts will be given almost daily in the OREGONIAN, arrangements having been effected to that end.

PASSENGERS.—The steamer Ajax, which sailed from San Francisco for Portland on Saturday, brings the following passengers: Mrs. Jocelyn, U. S. A., Mrs. A. D. Edgerton and child, S. H. Allen and wife, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Watson, Joseph Field, A. J. Anderson, S. Weidenthaler, Mrs. E. E. Carpenter, W. N. Carson, W. W. Coleman, S. A. Abbey, W. R. Wall, Count Carleline, Wm. Jackson, J. D. Kelly, R. Lassing, A. B. Quinn, Dr. J. S. Gibbs, Dr. P. D. Giltner, N.C. Martin, W. Culver, S. H. Johnson and wife, Selim Woodworth, T. E. Carbock wife and child, Mrs. M. Holmes and child, Mrs. Sherman and two children, E. F. Smith and wife, Mrs. R. Meluth and two children, Lake Williams, Mrs. S. Palmer and child, Wm. Neeley and wife, Miss E. Nichols, Capt. Geo. Pope and party.

TRIAL TRIP.—The steamer Champion made her trial trip yesterday with perfect success. She went to the foot of Swan Island and back to her dock in an hour and five minutes. She left this morning for Albany with 130 tons of assorted merchandise on board, drawing only 16 inches. This is the lightest draft on the water. With 100 tons she will draw but 12 inches. Coming down she will be able to carry more freight, as she can come down with deeper draught. She will be able to reach Albany all the year with at least 100 tons.

GONE.—Yesterday morning the railroad party boarded a special train on the westside road and went out to St. Jo. From that point they will proceed by carriage to Salem, where they are to be met by a special train from Portland and conveyed to Eugene City. On Tuesday morning the party will cross the mountains and start for Klamath Lake over the proposed line of the Oregon and Pacific railroad. Quite a number of prominent gentlemen from Portland will accompany the dignitaries as far as Eugene City.

PAINFUL INJURIES.—From the Welcome we learn that Mr. C. C. Abbott, formerly of East Portland, but now engaged in farming near that city, while engaged in putting a bridle on a horse attached to a wagon was knocked down by the same, which, for some cause or another, started to run away and the wagon passed over him. The injuries sustained though painful are not serious.

WEATHER REPORT.—From the records of the U. S. Signal Station of Observation, Portland, Oregon, July 18, 1875:

	7 A. M.	2. P. M.	9. P. M.
Thermometer	76°	89°	82°
Wind, direction	Calm	N.	Calm.
Wind, velocity	0	4	0
Weather	Clear.	Clear.	Clear.

Maximum temperature .....92°

ANOTHER NAME.—A correspondent writing from Marshland, Columbia county, says: "The name of the school teacher who died very suddenly near Marshland, in this county, a short time since, was F. W. Libbey and not Whitcomb, as reported in the papers. F. W. Libbey was a ship carpenter by trade and formerly of Rockland, Maine."

CAPACITY.—The Willamette steam saw mill's capacity is 160,000 feet every twenty-four hours. It is now running on one-quarter time, that is, one-half of the mill runs twelve hours. There is loading at the mill the bark Forward, for Australia, and the bark Garibaldi will load there for China.

STEAMER CHAMPION.—This new steamer will start up the river this morning, with a full cargo of assorted freight. She will ply between Portland and Corvallis until further notice. The steamer Beaver will be hauled off the line temporarily for repairs.

COLUMBIA RIVER FERRY.—Mr. Joseph Knott will put his steam ferryboat in operation across the Columbia river, opposite Vancouver, next week. To-day workmen will go over and commence to prepare a landing on the Oregon side.

KEYS LOST.—The finder of a bunch of keys consisting of one brass key, two steel ones and a watch key, on a ring, will lay the loser under obligations by leaving them at this office.

The following is the list of persons elected in the different precincts of this county to represent the Democracy in the county convention to be held in this city on Wednesday, July 21, 1875:

On next Saturday, Clarke & Henderson will send an order for the popular Hathaway shirt, and gentlemen wishing special sizes should call early and leave measure.

Steel, iron and rubber are three articles that of late years are being manufactured into a great variety of forms of usefulness, prominent among which is the improved Bessemer steel continuous, calked, concave horse-shoe, now in quite general use in Eastern and Western cities. We have not space to describe them fully, but certificates from all parts of the States would seem to prove that the old-fashioned, clumsy horse-shoe is about to be put aside, to make place for this more light, durable and comfortable shoe. Any of our readers who may wish to learn further about these goods, either shoes or the shapes to make them from, can obtain particulars by inquiring of Northrup & Thompson, of this city, who advertise them in another column.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. A. Dobinson has been succeeded in the management of R. G. Dun & Co.'s mercantile agency in this city, by Mr. O. F. Sites. Why will you continue to pay big prices for Clothing while those well known dealers in that desirable article, BECK & WALDMAN, are offering such bargains. The dull times necessitates a great reduction and they propose to keep the public supplied at any sacrifice. Each steamer brings them new goods, and they sell from the entire stock at the reduced rates. Call while the opportunity to buy low is offered. Youths' clothing a specialty.

The new store has been fitted up in a manner calculated to enable Mr. Kohn to display his large and elegant stock of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, &c., to excellent advantage. The steamer to arrive will bring large invoices delayed with a view to save removal. Mr. Kohn's prices are low and he gives satisfaction invariably.

Fires have been alarmingly scarce lately.

Dedication of St. Vincent's hospital to-day.

All the rage at present—moonlight drives, promenades and sailing.

A new sash and door factory is soon to be erected in East Portland.

Steamer Ajax will be due from San Francisco to-morrow evening.

Boating parties, which include lovely girls, out nightly on the water.

All the foundries and machine shops are busily engaged in turning out work.

The police court records show that there is a material decrease of crime in Portland.

Anybody is liable to have a midsummer night's dream to-night, but not like Shakspeare's.

Estes & Carter's mill, in the southern portion of the city, is rapidly approaching completion.

Rogerson, whose leg was amputated a few days ago at St. Vincent's Hospital, is doing very well.

Door-step parties are again timidly budding, with many misgivings as to the draughts and rheumatics.

We learn that a party of prospectors intend soon to start for the Cascades in quest of the precious metal.

During the absence of Rev. Mr. Burton his place will be supplied by Rev. G. W. Foote, of San Jose, California.

The annual convocation of the missionary jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington will assemble (D. V.) in Trinity church, Portland, on Thursday evening, October 7, 1875.

It is a shame that country people have to stay at home such lovely mornings; likewise an outrage that town people can't knock off and partake of a leisurely loaf in the country.

The greatest depth bored in this city for obtaining water is at Weidler's sawmill. A depth of 110 feet before a stratum could be obtained which would not be continually caving in.

Portland might assume metropolitan airs if it had free bathing establishments, not so wide and deep as at present. The boys want a place to ablute without being disturbed by an M. P. at every turn.

Bishop Morris started on his annual visitation to Eastern Oregon on Saturday, the 20th ultimo. This visitation is to extend as far as Lewiston, in Bishop Talbot's jurisdiction, and will include all the churches and mission stations east of the Cascades.

People complain a good bit about the carelessness of proof-readers, but if contributors to public prints would write legibly, capitalize sparingly, and punctuate intelligently, the proof-reading might prove more satisfactory to all whom it may concern.

The centennial silver medals received by Mr. C. E. Dubois are being disposed off quite rapidly, the morning cotemporary to the contrary, notwithstanding. Fifty medals have already been sold, and orders for more than that number have been received.

A Double Danger Averted.

The inhabitant of a malarious region is threatened by a double danger. He is not only compelled to breathe miasme, but to swallow it, since it infects not only the atmosphere, but the water. The aerial poison threatens his system through the lungs and pores, the liquid through the stomach. Against this double peril there is but one protection, and that is to invigorate the entire body through the digestive and secretive organs. Ordinary tonics usually fail to accomplish this—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters never. In the tropics, where the diseases originated by malaria are of a far more malignant type than those originated by the same cause in the temperate zone, it enjoys immense and and constantly increasing sales, and there is no portion of this continent where it is not the reigning specific for miasmatic fevers and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, proceeding from malaria and other causes.

BALL AS A BAT.

The base ball club of Fort Canby is now ready to receive challenges.

The return match between the club of Fort Canby and Excelsiors of Fort Stevens, will be played sometime this month.

One of the most exciting and interesting ball games this season, played in the city, took place last Saturday afternoon, on the academy grounds, between the Pioneer and Arcadian clubs, which was won after a two hours' contest by the former, the score standing 19 to 17. The large crowd present frequently manifested their interest by applauding. The Arcadians were captained by H. McCracken; the Pioneers by Jos. Wiley. The former club were without John Bird, who is one of their best players, which may partly account for their defeat.

Not so much activity was manifested by the players as formerly, although the game was a close one, and well played. Doubtless the Pioneers feel elated over their victory, and will make livelier exertions since the event. Messrs. Raleigh, (J.), Thompson and Matthews were the principal players for the Pioneers; Messrs. Speck, Hart, Oliver and Burnside for the Arcadians. It is very apparent that both clubs need more practice. Thompson, as pitcher, excelled his former efforts; Matthews played well, though nothing unusual, and Speck completely covered himself with (dirt) glory. Some of the fielders were slow in their movements, and Barker, Snow, Wilcox, Northrup, and others, could have played better if they had been in good practice. McCraken's pitching, being his first this season, was as good as the average. Oliver led amid the Pioneer's score considerably by his swift delivery, and last, though not least, "Billy" Hart managed to "steal" more bases than is generally done in ball games. Good feeling prevailed, the umpire's decisions were impartial and vanquishers and vanquished left the diamond field, satisfied with the result, which we append:

THE ECONOMIES OF NATURE.—At the dog show, a being asked by one of his fair daughters why the bulldog's nose is placed so far behind his mouth, a very reverend gentleman discovers another instance of the merciful consideration ever shown by—shall we say "Nature"?—to the humblest of her creatures, and replies: "My love, it is to enable him to breathe more comfortably while he is hanging on to the nose of the bull!"—Punch.

COAL OIL JOHNNY

The country is familiar with the petroleum bubble of years ago how men rose in the morning beggars, and retired at night millionaires how nabobs became mendicants in the breath of a wind. One of the heroes of those notable days is Johnny Steele or 'Coal Oil Johnny' as he is now familiarly called His history is known to all newspaper readers and they will remember how he went to bed one night a laborer at $20 a month, and awoke in the morning the heir of the richest oil well in Venango county He didn't know what to do with the money which flowed from his well He it was who purchased a hotel in Philadelphia at extravagant figures, and gave it away the next day, who would buy up a dance house at a big price for the privilege of "running it" one night who would purchase a fancy team, use it once, and give it away, who bought a minstrel troupe, and ran it a whole season for the fun of it who never refused to lend money, nor asked its return

He stepped from penury, through one million and a half of dollars, back to penury again, in sixteen short months Then he came West, and now he is at work with a gang of bridge builders in Shelby county, down on the Rock Island road, at a salary of one hundred and seventy-five cents a day He is just as happy and contented with his frugal fare and lowly lot as when he basked in the smiles of Fortune s favors His wife clings to him in adversity with true hearted love and accepts the situation with all the grace which characterizes a noble woman She joined his fortunes when sunshine gilded his path, she now seeks to make his pathway bright beneath the shadows of adversity Their home is at Dunlap Johnny says many of the stories of his wasteful extravagance are false His reverses came from loans made to friends, who failed to repay them, a broken bank, carried down $120 000 at one swoop and another bank took $40,000 Out of the wreck of the latter he hoped to get enough to get his good wife a beautiful dress and a nice new house —Desmoines Cor Chicago Tribune

THE MOSQUITOES OF ARCTIC LAND —In a work recently published in London The Land of the North Wind, or Travels among the Laplanders and the Samoyeds the author, Edward Roe, gives the following account of the Arctic mosquitoes, which almost makes us content with our own The one bitter drop in our cup of joy was the monstrous but inseparable curse of Arctic summer life—the mosquito He abounded flourished, luxuriated, surpassed himself, out mosquitoed himself, on the Kulos river We were at his mercy our veils, gauntlets, handkerchiefs, flappers, all were a vanity and vexation To kill was wanton, for to destroy sufficient was impossible We had foreseen all this, and even thought of taking, among other things, a woodpecker from home to protect our faces while we slept, but one woodpecker would have been a solemn mockery, we should have wanted a fresh woodpecker every five minutes I suppose these were the historical flies sent to punish the disobedient, obstinate Egyptians, they came forth in order, and after three grievous plagues—the corruption of the waters, the multitude of frogs and the swarms of lice—had entirely failed We are becoming connoisseurs in mosquitoes, we watch them traverse our veils like figures on slides in a magic lantern There is the yellow striped vampire mosquito, with a triple lung to his proboscis, there is the brown, hunchbacked or camel mosquito, with legs of gossamer, who appears to our vindictive eyes to be from two to three inches in length, finally, there is the scorpion mosquito, very searching and business like We dislike him greatly, for he wastes no time We know now that leather is a hollow delusion, and armor-plated gauntlets are alone of avail

WACHTEL SINGING WHILE HIS CHILD IS DYING —The opera house is thronged with an expectant audience, for Theodore Wachtel is to appear in Der Postilion von Lonjumeau, and all Leipzig must hear him Perhaps more than one person in that assembly is thinking what a fine thing it is to be a favorite actor, and wishing that he could change places with Wachtel The audience even fancy that he must be as impatient as they for the curtain to rise and the opera to begin While they are waiting let us take a peep back of the scenes The postboy stands at the threshold, and the attendants look from one to the other with awe struck faces Through the half-open door of a dressing-room we see the celebrated Wachtel in an agony of grief, and can easily guess that the paper he has dropped on the floor is a telegram with bad news In truth it is, for it brings word that his youngest son is dying and wants to see him He cannot go, the audience cannot be disappointed, he must swallow the lump that rises in his throat till it almost chokes him, and assume all the gayety of "Chapelon," the postilion of Lonjumeau At the end of the second act while the audience is making the house ring with applause, Wachtel is reading another telegram This one tells him that his son is dead At the end of the third act he thrills the audience as he sings "Gute Nacht, mein Herziches Kind." They think the postilion is singing that song, but we know that Theodore Wachtel is bidding his child a last good night —Leipzig Letter

HOW WEED WENT TO SEE TWEED —Thurlow Weed to day, sick and feeble, as he is still a great power Tweed, a life long acquaintance, sent for him on Blackwell s Island. Mr Weed said | "You have sent for me, I presume, to see if I would interfere to induce the Governor to interfere in your behalf?' 'Yes" was the reply 'I am afraid," said Mr Weed "that you have not the power to do the only thing that would justify an interference on your behalf If you could restore three or four millions of money, or even one million justice might be satisfied and you released' "I am utterly powerless" Tweed said, "to make any restitution Personally I have had but little benefit from the moneys taken from the city Everybody had a claim upon me, and right and left I have distributed the funds to others My lawyers were paid half a million Investments in real estate have been ruinous Immense sums have been lost in stock speculation and though I am reputed to be immensely rich, except the property settled on my wife I have nothing Bursting into tears Tweed said 'I would gladly give up every dollar I possess in the world to make restitution If I had been more selfish and had taken personal charge of the money I would not have been here I see the difficulty The property is beyond my control and I cannot return it And unless I make some restitution the Governor could not and ought not to interfere in my behalf —Boston Journal

AN AGED NEGRO —The Donaldsonville (La) Chief says that old Tom Turnham a colored man who is claimed to have attained the remarkable age of one hundred and twenty five years departed this life recently, and was placed beneath the sod he had so long dwelt upon When Louisiana was ceded to the United States, Tom was well advanced in years and had a son who had reached manhood long before

In monetary matters there are but few new features of general interest. It is claimed with a good basis that there is a gradual increase in the amount of available funds in this market and some hold to the opinion that the outlook for a still greater reduction in current rates for discounts will take place At present but few deals are made for loans and but little commercial paper are on the market and transactions are hardly of sufficient volume to indicate the course of the market for any length of time ahead

The San Francisco mint has just reported the coinage for the year 1874-5 ending the 30th ult showing $ 000 000 double eagles $100 000 in eagle $100 000 in half eagles—total $ 0 200 000 Of silver it coined $7 9 000 in trade dollars $47 000 in half dollars $1 000 in quarter dollars $3 000 in twenty cent pieces and $313 000 in dime tot l silver $4 427 000 grand total gold and silver $0 5 7 000 In 1873-4 the coinage was $22 30 000 gold and $ 00 000 silver The amount turned out in 15 4 was the largest ever coined in the mint.

A New York letter of July 8th says Business has relaxed into the usual summer quietude The monetary market has experienced no especial change. The supply of capital has increased largely with not a corresponding increase in the demand Merchants anticipate an improved state of things for the fall but until then expect to practice a hand to mouth policy Weather in this section has been most favorable for maturing the crops and reports throughout the country generally are of the same tenor with indications of nearly if not quite an average wheat crop

Miscellaneous.

Liverpool wheat quotations on the 14th inst were given at 9s 4d@9s 6d for average California and 9s 6d@9s 10d for Chilo

The New York Shipping List says Preliminary steps are being taken to establish a system of exchange between the co operative societies of Great Britain and the Patrons of Husbandry in this country It is proposed to exchange the manufactures of England for American products and thereby save the large percentage now paid to middlemen in both countries. The English societies propose to freight their own ships with their manufactures and to receive in return the wheat cotton and other products of this country on such terms as will be equitable and economical It is urged that by this course a much greater quantity of American products would find its way to the English markets than under the present system

It is expected that vessels aggregating 60 000 tons coastage will be employed in San Francisco within 90 days most of them seeking cargoes

The wool clip is coming forward in larger quantities than ever before and the movement seems to be very general All our State exchanges note the arrival of large quantities at most all the interior towns.

We hear of a few fields of wheat which are about ripe and two or three that have been harvested but there will be very little of the new crop in market before the 10th prox

It is estimated that the two thousand co operative societies in England are doing an annual business of $160 000 000 on a 5 per cent profit The grangers in this country number 2 000 000 members and the alliance of these two powerful associations may have an important bearing upon the trade of the two countries

Some of our Puget Sound exchanges report the potato crop in several localities in that quarter quite short and at Seattle now the market is quite as high as at San Francisco

Home Produce Market.

WHEAT—The active speculative demand was still manifest to-day and a few lots changed hands at what is claimed to be full rates but terms are generally reserved The current quotation however is about $1 60 per cental Street rumors were abroad that the San Francisco market had advanced to $2 per cental but our telegrams show the same figures as given yesterday What ever may be the cause of the excitement in the market, buyers here seem to place but little confidence in the permanency of the rise though all feel that it may be the forerunner of good prices during the harvest year upon which we are just about to enter

FLOUR—The excitement in wheat or other causes has affected the flour market somewhat and the leading brands were again marked up to $5 50 per barrel to-day but how long the advance will last is uncertain, and no one would be surprised to see it either go higher or settle back to $5 75@5 The present portable price of the market in woodstuffs is one which dealers here do not appear fully to understand but they are taking all the legitimate advantages of it they can Those wise sharp bedgers in the article of flour bought by parties who had sold before they knew of the rise and the last man who sold at the old price is the one who considers himself out.

OATS—There has been quite excited by the San Francisco telegrams yesterday was quieted down to day and if any corner was attempted it failed and it is too late in the season for any large movement before harvest which is at hand almost Quotations are still furnished at 2@95c ₱ bushel

BARLEY—We hear of no transactions to establish prices and we quote nominally at $1 25 ₱ cent. for common and $1 3 @140 for choice.

MILL FEED—There is still a tendency to a reduced demand We quote bran at $19@16 50 ₱ ton sheets $22@25 chops middlings etc $27 50@30 oil cake meal $30 with but little in market

HAY—A full supply in the market quotable at $10@11 ₱ ton for fair to be timothy loose and $11 baled

POTATOES—The market is in fair supply at 75c $1 ₱ bushel

ONIONS—There are but few lots in the market quotable at 2c ₱ lb nominally

APPLES (DRIED)—There is a fair demand for fair lots either in sacks or kegs the latter preferred at 6c ₱ lb Expressage increasing

BACON—Sides are held at our former quotations of 11@12c ₱ lb and are in full supply shoulders are unchanged from 8@9c while the market is well cleaned with hams and quotations for common lots are 10@12c ₱ lb though they must be a little extra to command the latter figure.

LARD—Good Oregon made is worth 16c ₱ lb in kegs or tins and is in brisk demand

BUTTER will be given for choice roll at 22@25 ₱ lb extra print for table use 30@35c common solid 18@20c.

CHICKENS—The market is in liberal supply quotations for full grown 4 25@4 50 per dozen spring $2 50@ 75.

EGGS—As predicted yesterday prices to-day were put down to 20c ₱ doz with the prospect of going lower early next week unless advices from below should keep it up

BEEF CATTLE—Some very fine arrivals have been noticed during the week and the market is supplied with an excellent stock Slaughterers prices are 3 @4 50 per cwt net or 5 7@6 50 on foot.

MUTTON SHEEP—The demand is light at 3@3 75 per head

DRESSED HOGS—There is some inquiry for the local trade at 6½@6¾c ₱ lb

HIDES AND FURS—Prices for hides are still down on account of the many damaged lots reaching the market Undamaged are quoted at 18c ₱ lb for dry beef hides 6c for green veal 10@12c kip 18@20c ₱ lb deer 18@20c ₱ lb dried and 50@75c ₱ piece green mink skins each $1 50 otter $1@3 beaver $5@8

WOOL—The state of activity noticed in the trade last week has continued uninterruptedly until now All before prices have been led largely on the quality and condition Quotations for wool from this valley are furnished as follows from Eastern Oregon 21@ 24c but a lot of valley wool was on the market to-day for which an offer of 25c ₱ lb was refused The shipments for the season to date have been about 500 000 pounds
